WESTIN DALLAS AT THE TOP OF THE BRAND

The Westin Galleria Dallas, consistently praised for its top-notch customer service, was named the 2009 "Westin Hotel of the Year" in North America by its parent company, Starwood Hotels. The award comes on the heels of a two-year, multimillion-dollar renovation that included the addition of noise-resistant, energy-efficient windows in guest rooms and more contemporary decorations. "I can't say enough how proud I am of our team and how much this award speaks to the spirit of excellence and hard work they bring here each and every day," says General Manager John Everett. Starwood Hotels includes the Westin, Sheraton and W Hotels, among other brands. Learn more at www.starwoodhotels.com.
